

Volunteer Opportunities

Do you currently work or volunteer with young children? If you don't, consider finding an opportunity to share your time and talents while learning about the world of kids. Whether you are leading a Girl Scout troop or coordinating a library program for children living in a low income housing development, volunteer experiences can provide you with a wealth of personal, professional, and educational growth and satisfaction.

If you're looking for a volunteer position—whether you want to work with children in a homeless shelter, coordinate art activities at a museum, or tutor in an after school program—here are two websites to get you started:

If you're not ready to make a long-term commitment to a volunteer position, consider something short-term. Many schools and nonprofit organizations need volunteers for one-day events! Find what works for you.
