On your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), you answered "no" to all of the questions in regard to your dependency status. However, you indicated that you have special circumstances and are unable to provide parental data for one of the following reasons. Please check all reason(s) below that apply.

- Your parent(s) do not want to provide their information on your FAFSA
- Your parent(s) refuse to contribute to your college expenses
- Your parent(s) do not claim you as a dependent on their federal income taxes
- You do not live with your parent(s)
- Your parent(s) do not give you any type of support including items such as medical insurance, auto insurance, etc.

Note: You may be required to provide evidence of your situation indicated above.

If your request for this status is approved, you will still be considered a dependent student for financial aid purposes and will only be eligible for an unsubsidized Stafford loan.

If your request is denied, you have the option to add parental information to the FAFSA or you may finance your education with private funds (cash, credit card, and/or alternative loan).

By signing this document, I certify that the information is complete, true and accurate. I understand that purposely providing false or misleading information could result in criminal prosecution, prison sentence, and/or a fine pursuant to U.S. Criminal Code and Colorado Criminal Code.
