

Horticulture and Landscape Technologies

Transfer Information

Colorado State University (CSU) offers bachelor-degree programs in horticulture fields. Courses offered at FRCC for the Associate in Applied Science (AAS) degree and the various certificates are career/technical credits and may not directly transfer to CSU bachelor-degree requirements. It is important that students who wish to transfer to CSU work closely with faculty from FRCC and CSU in planning their program.

CSU Programs

Colorado State University Horticulture and Landscape Architecture Program

Colorado State University Turf Program

Colorado State University Core Curriculum

Transfer Guide to CSU

CSU/FRCC Horticulture Faculty Contacts

Turfgrass Management

Tony Koski - CSU

Ray Daugherty - FRCC Westminster Campus

Diane Waltman - FRCC Larimer Campus

Landscape Management

Jim Klett - CSU

Ray Daugherty - FRCC Westminster Campus

Diane Waltman - FRCC Larimer Campus

Greenhouse Management/Floriculture

Steve Newman - CSU

Ray Daugherty - FRCC Westminster Campus

Diane Waltman - FRCC Larimer Campus

Landscape Architecture

Bradley Goetz - CSU

Ray Daugherty - FRCC Westminster Campus

Landscape Design & Contracting

Zach Johnson/Elizabeth Mogen - CSU

Ray Daugherty - FRCC Westminster Campus

Diane Waltman - FRCC Larimer Campus