Horticulture and Landscape Technologies

Financial Assistance:

- FRCC Foundation: The foundation grants a number of scholarships to students in all disciplines at FRCC, and many to only the Horticulture and Landscape Technology students.

- FRCC Financial Aid: Financial Aid awards grants and loans. Your first step is the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Local or Regional Horticulture Scholarships:

- Associated Landscape Contractors of Colorado: Awards scholarships to students interested in landscape contracting or landscape management. John McMahon, ALCC Executive Director, 1660 S. Albion St., Suite 831; Denver, CO 80222, (303) 757-5611.

- Colorado Arborists and Lawn Care Professionals: Provides 3 student scholarships a year to students studying a turf or horticulture related field. Dot Miller, CALCP Executive Director, 7187 W. 79th Drive, Arvada, CO 80003. (303) 850-7587

- CHREF (Colorado Horticulture Research and Education Foundation): Each year CHREF awards scholarships to aspiring college students based on an evaluation of their industry experience, sincerity and commitment to a career in horticulture, knowledge and financial need. 303.758.6672, info@coloradonga.org.

- Colorado Garden Foundation: This scholarship is for a full Resident Tuition, Books, and Fees for one year. Applicant must be a pursuing a degree in Horticulture, Landscape Horticulture, Floriculture, Turf grass Management, Botany, Entomology, Plant Pathology, Landscape Design, or Landscape Architecture. One scholarship is earmarked for a FRCC student offered through the FRCC Foundation applications are due every year on March 1. Contact Colorado Garden Foundation, 959 S. Kipling Pkwy, Suite 100, Lakewood, CO 80226, (303) 932-8100 or info@coloradogardenfoundation.org.

- Colorado Parks & Recreation Association: Applicants must be active members of CPRA for at least one year before applying for assistance.

Updated: March 5, 2020
• Garden Centers of Colorado: Gives scholarships up to $2500 to employees of any member company. These may be used for college, Colorado Master Gardener SM or classes at Denver Botanic Gardens, Hudson Gardens or elsewhere. Donna Ralston, GCC Executive Director, 6456 S. Niagara Court Englewood, CO 80111, (303) 850-7587.

• Happy Transplants Garden Club: Awards one or more scholarships annually to students in horticulture at the Westminster Campus. Award is based upon financial need and academic merit. Apply for this scholarship through the FRCC Foundation, applications open in December and are due on March 1 each year.

• The National Garden Clubs: Awards scholarships to students entering their junior year of college (FRCC students transferring to Colorado State University). Applications are due to the State Scholarship Program Chair by March 1.

• Rocky Mountain Regional Turfgrass Association: Awards scholarships for students studying turfgrass management and related disciplines. Contact information at website or kim@rmrta.org

National Horticulture Scholarships:

- Proven Winners Scholarship: An international plant brand that supports horticulture education by giving scholarships to both 4 year degree seeking students as well as community college students.

- John Wright & Robert Felix Memorial Scholarship: $3,000 scholarship for student pursuing commercial arboriculture. TREE Fund (Tree Research & Education Fund).

- Perennial Plant Association: $1000 scholarship and complimentary registration and lodging at the association's annual convention. Dr. Steven Still, Executive Director, 3383 Schirzinger Road, Hilliard, OH 43026, (614) 771-8431.

- Bruce Briggs Memorial Scholarship: Scholarship for students pursuing a career in plant propagation (nursery or greenhouse) from International Plant Propagators Society - Western Region.

- Horticultural Research Institute: Various scholarships for students studying horticulture, landscaping, and related nursery industry studies. Eligibility requirements are different for each scholarship.

- American Floral Endowment: Various scholarships available to students in horticulture and floriculture related fields.

Updated: March 5, 2020